

High Holiday Scavenger Hunt

Grab your family members and rediscover the High Holidays in and around your home. You may not find exactly what you are looking for, so be creative and use what is around you to make the objects you are looking for. Post your findings on the Solel Facebook or Instagram pages or email Rabbi Pollack or Arliene Botnick with your finds

Find something that looks like a Shofar	A Song of Love & Friendship: Gather your family to create a 15 second harmonious New Year's greeting and post it on the Solel Facebook or Instagram pages	Find something that looks like a reminder of God's presence in the world around you	Tashlich - take a coffee filter and write with a magic marker what you want to be forgiven of from this past year. Place it in a body of water and watch your mistakes disappear as you begin a new year.	Find Something that sounds like Tekiah, something steady that soothes you like the long blast
Find something that looks like a Torah Scroll	Quiz Time! Which of the following has something to do with High Holidays? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Dipping apples in honey for a sweet new year b) Blowing the Shofar c) Asking forgiveness from anyone we may have wronged in the past year. d) Starting fresh in the New Year e) All of the Above 	Find something that looks like the head and not the tail as you start your year off ahead and not behind.	Spreading the Love Create a Pop Up Card to wish one of your friends a Shanah Tovah u'Metukah!	Find Something that sounds like Shevarim, something that changes and makes you notice

Find something that looks like the World	Mitzvah Time! Mitzvot come in all shapes and sizes. Donate to the Mississauga Food Bank by looking around your house for non-perishables to donate.		Kitchen Time! Cook/make a Jewish traditional dish or create a new one	Find Something that sounds like T'ruah, something that is really bumpy that you can't help but notice
Find something that reminds you of the New Year	Hachnasat Orchim! Virtually Welcome somebody to your home and take a screenshot.	Find something that looks like a reminder of a new beginning	Double Holiday This Year Rosh Hashanah is on Shabbat. Create 2 Round Challot to dip in honey at your Shabbat Table	Find Something that sounds like Tekiah Gedolah, something long lasting
Find something that looks like a reminder of your Family	Reflect.React.Renew. Receive a daily question sent to you for the 10 days between Rosh Hashanah & Yom Kippur. Your answers will go into a digital vault until they are sent back in a year. Sign up for 10Q https://www.doyou10q.com/	Find something that looks like A day of creation	Rosh Hashanah Seder The Sephardic tradition is to have a quick Seder filled with different foods that bring good luck in the New Year. Google these foods and add one to your Holiday table	New Year's Wishes Bring out your positivity pen and write down your wishes for you, your family and your community in the coming year!